And all i know is the sun is shining
yet we fight all through the night all the bergs are melting and the sea is rising i dont know so i ask 'em why why are they refusing to listen why are these troops on a mission why are hey shooting these victims over their view of religion
yeh why do we all search for love like we got cupid's addiction why with politicians you cant tell the truth from the fiction why do we pollute where were living why are these youth put at risk and why is this fool on dominion kept us consumed in this prison na na na i wont jump through the the hoops of the system nothing stands between you and the pursuit of your vision i grab a loop of this rhythm that puts the juice in my piston
i jump back react spit in the boot with precision and when im cruising with lzm yeh im doosing the spliff its a BNE show gettin loose was a given i dont want them to look back to when the future was written and know we killed ourselves with nuclear vision and stupid decisions shit id rather an asteroid due for collision then know the planet got fucked by the human condition
sing the tune with conviction

yet we fight all through the night
yet we fight all through the night
well if you dont know shit i dont know i guess all we can do is ask them why yeh im an old school poet yeh yo yo yo im an old school poet i cherish the ink that cosmic cowboy that doesnt care what they think real magic isnt card trick, big cribs and cars bitch its making something out of nothing through this hardship

and even though that the earth is weak we still bomb each other and idol what the churches speak its like this land is either run by labour or liberal but dont get entwisted their the same as the criminals so open you eyes and simply notice the issue that we stuck to our guns without promoting the pistol and we orchestrated the sound that we all love split because of colour but bound because of blood so before we all blow and they sell the scene know that the only thing thats bullet proof is my self-esteem

see this is way beyond cash and ego tripping its an epic electric eso-ecosystem grow with me

yet we fight all through the night
yet we fight all through the night

i dont have to tell you things are bad everybody knows things are bad pollutions rising now the ice caps are melting quick kids trust no one else and why would they the air is unfit to breath, our food is unfit to eat its an inferno land, pollutions rising now the ice caps are melting quick fuck your race riots, fuck all that shit we are all here in this country as fucking one, just one its all about peace, love and unity sing it peace, love and unity

yet we fight all through the night
