If I could ask a question
What would it be?
There's just too many,
Like the stars,
You wonder where they start.

But, it starts with a picture,
And it sits in your frame.
And we part with a letter,
And it ends in my name.
And it starts with forever,
And it ends with a touch.
And I know that you're clever,
And I don't ask for much.

Oh oh oh oh,
Maybe we forgot all the things we are when we are together.
So, so...

Wake me up, wake me...
I'll stop my fall, when I'm at my weakest.
Tape me up, then break me up,
Ever so gently.
Then it's not so hard, every time you go.

Oh, oh, oh, oh.
Oh, oh, oh, oh.

You said I'm arresting,
You said I had heat.
I really thought that we'd go further
The second time we meet.
'Cos I'm tired of trying to keep you.
All I want to do is sleep.
Then perhaps, when I'm sleeping,
You'll get back on your feet.

Maybe we forgot, all the things we learned,
When we are together.
So, so...

Wake me up, wake me...
I'll stop my fall, when I'm at my weakest.
Tape me up, then break me up,
Ever so gently.
When I'm at my weakest,
It's not so hard, every time you go.

Oh, oh, oh, oh.
Oh, oh, oh, oh.

Maybe we forgot, are we awake or not?
Maybe we forgot, are we awake or not?
Oh...
Maybe we forgot, are we awake or not?
Oh...
Maybe we forgot.

So, so...

Wake me up, wake me...
I'll stop my fall, when I'm at my weakest.
Tape me up, then break me up,
Ever so gently.
Then it's not so hard, every time you go.
