Sooner or later I'll be heading home
Sooner or later I'll be on my own
Tune into center, I'll wear out my shoes
Tune into someone got nothing to lose

Without your love I'm feeling so bad

Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm feeling so bad
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm feeling so bad

Move in the sun 'til I burn all my tires
Maybe they're scratching the watery eyes
I think I've been waiting for this all my life
Flourish the kisses left frozen in time

Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm feeling so bad
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
