Dont
you stand by my side your just another messed up life and it shows in your skin! i'm smiling because i like your dress and all the dirty looks it gets from the guys at the bar!

please dont close your eyes because im scared they might never wake to see my face ever again!

there's more to love than meets the eye, it's as fragile as a flower and as bright as the bluest sky! im a mess because your all dressed up without me and i wonder what your doing right now lovely sky!
you can fall on top of me when you're ready!

please dont close your eyes because im scared they
might never wake to see my face ever again!

i didnt do this to make you angry, i didnt do this to make you scared
