"The Joy We Keep In"

i'm letting go of all these heavy things that i cant lift, i never should have left here but you know this was the best that i could do for me right now! im holding onto things that i cant keep while star struck lovers bathe in eachothers needs!

if i could see your face i would take you with my hand! to all the lovers crying, leave your tears
at home tonight because everything will be alright!

tonight, i had everything i needed to get me by but everything changes when your lover cries! don;t hold your breath just get used to this..i've tried

if i could see your face i would take you with my hand! to all the lovers crying, leave your tears at home tonight because everything will be alright!

you said you don't need this,
the dreamers air im breathing and all the in between things we dont need...the dreamers air im breathing and all the in between things we dont need...
