

Elliot Minor "Another Morning"

Visit "Another Morning" on MotoLyrics.com

Another morning she's still ignoring me, there's no change.

Why can't she see me?

She looks straight through me, and I still have her picture on my wall.

I never understood the way I felt for her, I never really found the way I felt, and I can't go on thinking it's OK.

I don't believe her, she makes up stories, so she can tell all her friends

She's just a faker and she's a taker

She's got everything but she wants more.

She wants more

I never understood the way I felt for her, I never really found the way I felt and I can't go on thinking it's OK.

No matter what I do I always think of her, and now I can't control, I'm lost I'm in, and I can't go on thinking it's OK.

Today I'll make sure that I fall on my own.

Today I'll make sure that I fall on my own, I'll take on everything that goes on my own.

She wants more

I never understood the way I felt for her, I never really felt the way I felt, and I can't go on thinking it's OK.

No matter what I do I always think of her, and now I can't control, I'm lost I'm in, and I can't go on thinking it's OK.

Today I failed.

Visit Elliot Minor page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.