Taking what is mine
And you are taking what is yours
But there is something you won't get back
That belongs to me

The tears left in your eyes are true
There's something there
It won't break through
I guess tonight will be another
Thought of you

Breaking
Breaking everything
Believing
What is it with me?
Staring
Into happier times
But nothing ever matters anymore

Walking down the street at night
My past reminding me I lied
I'm so sorry for the tender truth

Don't let your heart get bent on me
Stop stealing it might happen for free
The song want
The song you need
Don't go

Breaking
Breaking everything
Believing
What is there for me?
Staring
Into happier times
But nothing ever matters anymore

Taking what is mine
And you are taking what is yours
But there is something you won't get back
That belongs to me

The tears left in your eyes are true
There's something there
It won't break through
I guess tonight will be another
Thought of you

Breaking
Breaking everything
Believing
What is it with me?
Staring
Into happier times
But nothing ever matters anymore

Staring
Into happier times
But nothing ever matters anymore
Nothing ever matters anymore
Nothing ever matters anymore
