Sweat it out but I never quite feel the same
Once again I've been missing out on all the days
And when I think about the highest feeling
When we pass through the day
I'm in awe of everything I see your way

Maybe if we discover why the love hurts
We'll never wanna leave
Cause now I'm always breaking down
It always brings me down
Now I'll never want to be feeling over it
And living life like this
I'm never coming back again

Giving up and letting nothing else remain
I feel like hell but it's worth it to be back again
So step it up a little higher
Can we just pass through the day
Cause I'm in awe of everything I see your way

So maybe if we discover why the love hurts
We'll never wanna leave
Cause now I'm always breaking down
It always brings me down
Cause I never want to be feeling over it
And living life like this
Never coming back to this, to this.

Maybe if we discover why the love hurts
We'll never wanna leave
Cause now I'm always breaking down
It always brings me down
Never want to be feeling over it
And living life like this
I'm never coming back

Maybe if we discover why the love hurts
We'll never wanna leave
Cause now I'm always breaking down
It always brings me down
Never wanna be feeling over it
And living life like this

I'm never coming back
Cause I'm leaving all of that
I'm never coming back to this.
