I've painted all this over, been working overtime
I'm a little far from heaven, but I'll survive
Now your coming over, from the haze in the light and I am stood here watching, watching her cause
I am close to surrender, to the point I forgive her

Take me higher, take me high.
I wanna feel your essence come to life.
Electric high, Electric high.
I just wanna feel, I just wanna feel you come to life

Climbing into spaces as faces crystallize.
I swear that we'll deliver to places we feel right.
Chasing all your diamonds a thousand painted eyes.
Running from the outside, god if I could fly.

Smokes hits the sky line, setting a silver high diffuse and surrender to the point I forgive her

Take me higher, take me high.
I wanna feel your essence come to life.
Electric high, Electric high.
I just wanna feel, I just wanna feel you come to life

Smokes hits the high light, setting a silver high diffuse and surrender to the point I forgive her

Take me higher, take me high.
I wanna feel your essence come to life.
Electric high, Electric high.
I just wanna feel, I just wanna feel you come to life

Electric High
I wanna feel your essence come to life.
Electric high, Electric high.
I just wanna feel, I just wanna feel,
I just wanna feel, I just wanna feel you come to life.
