Still figuring out,
How to stay like this forever,
Still figuring out,
Today, today, yeah,
Just cruising around,
And knowing that we will never go our separate ways.

This is how it's meant to be,
Released from misery,
A straight mind is all I need,
I can walk on my own feet.

We're falling out of time,
Let memories unwind,
The state that we've been in is beating up your mind.

Lets play this song for everyone until they're gone,
Lets play this song all night long.

Still figuring out,
How to stay like this forever,
Still figuring out,
Today, today, yeah.
Just cruising around,
And knowing that we will never go our separate ways.

Days and nights,
They feel so good,
Just like the way they should.
Those crazy nights we left behind were so misunderstood.

A missing photograph,
Never thinking of the past.
Well theres a lot to see, and theres only one path.

Lets play this song for everyone until they're gone,

Lets play this song all night long.

Still figuring out,
How to stay like this forever,

Still figuring out,
Today, today, yeah.
Just cruising around,
And knowing that we will never go our separate ways.

Still figuring out,
How to stay like this forever,
Still figuring out,
Today, today, yeah.
Just cruising around,
And knowing that we will never go our separate ways.

We will go our separate ways,
We will go our separate ways,
We will go our separate ways,
We will go our separate ways.

INSTRUMENTAL

Still figuring out,
How to stay like this forever,
Still figuring out,
Today, today, yeah.
Just cruising around,
And knowing that we will never go our separate ways.

Still figuring out,
How to stay like this forever,
Still figuring out,
Today, today, yeah.
Just cruising around,
And knowin that we will never go our separate ways.
