"Sweet Adeline"

Cut this picture into you and me
Burn it backwards kill this history
Make it over make it stay away
Or hate'll sing the ending that love started to say There's a kid a floor below me saying brother can you spare
Sunshine for a brother old man winter's in the air Walked me up a story asking how you are Told me not to worry you were just a shooting star Sweet adeline, sweet adeline, my clementine, sweet adeline
It's a picture perfect evening and i'm staring down the sun
Fully loaded deaf and dumb and done Waiting for sedation to disconnect my head or any situation where i'm better off then dead
