I never meant for this to be,
So long now i guess we'll never see,
The reason to our misery,
Lying side by side though miles apart,
The skylights of my restless heart,
You bring hope when things seem so dark.

But everyday i think of you,
And when the stars come out,
I want you i miss you i need you here,
I guess i'll wait another week.

I remember the first time i saw you,
And when you looked at me,
I didn't even know what do do,
Now my life has a purpose which i never knew,
Your the one your the girl in the song,
And i just wanted to say that every step of the way,
You meant the world to me,
And everybody could see that we were meant to be.
But everyday i think of you,
And when the stars come out,
I want you i miss you i need you here,
I guess i'll wait another week.

You make me feel someone real,
I need you here,
You make me feel someone real,
I need you here,
I know i know that your the one,
I know i know that your the one.

And everyday i think of you,
And when the stars come out,
I want you i miss you i need you here,
I guess i'll wait another week,
I guess i'll wait another week,
I guess i'll wait another week,
I guess i'll wait another week,
I guess i'll wait another,
Well i will wait forever,
I guess i'll wait another week,

I guess i'll wait another week
