All folk of the town
Gather around.
Candles lit in tall street lamps
Light up the ground.
People peering down
from their frosty windows
All singing a season song, good will, good will.

There's someone out there, who's all alone
Dreaming of Christmas time.

What about Christmas? You know it's for all of us.
What about Christmas time?
Sensations tingling, people are singing
What about Christmas time?

They're covered in gold
See how they shine.
All sitting beside the fire, tonight, tonight.
Some stories are told
Candles fade and retire
The memories' secrets share a promise tonight.

There's someone out there, who's all alone
Dreaming of Christmas time.

What about Christmas? You know it's for all of us.
What about Christmas time?
Sensations tingling, people are singing
What about Christmas time?
What about Christmas? You know it's for all of us.
What about Christmas time?
Sensations tingling, people are singing
What about Christmas time?

Chime bells ringing, people are singing
See no evil, people sing.

What about Christmas? You know it's for all of us.
What about Christmas time?
Sensations tingling, people are singing

What about Christmas time?

Chime bells ringing, people are singing
See no evil, people sing.
