Start, stop and start
Stupid acting smart
Flirting with the flicks
You say it's just for kicks
You'll be the victim of your own dirty tricks
You got yourself to tease and displease

Doors swinging wide
You walked in to hide
Looking at your feet
Failure's complete
Saw you and me on the coin-op tv
Frozen in fear every time we appear

I'm not surprised at all and really, why should I be
See nothing wrong, see nothing wrong
So sick and tired of all these pictures of me
Completely wrong, totally wrong

Go walking by
Here come another guy
Jailer who sells personal hells
Who'd like to see me down on my fucking knees
Everybody's dying just to get the disease

Hey hey hey hey

I'm not surprised at all and really, why should I be
See nothing wrong, see nothing wrong
So sick and tired of all these pictures of me
Completely wrong, totally wrong

I'm not surprised at all and really, why should I be
See nothing wrong, see nothing wrong
So sick and tired of all these pictures of me
Oh everybody's dying just to get the disease
Everybody's dying just to get the disease
Everybody's dying just to get the disease
