"Abused"

now that everybody's wanting expression not that you wanted to use it seems untrue now but the funniest thing is it fits you now through the profanity

you may never understand this affliction i already feel the effects you feel too abused now, body and mind abused now, almost all of the time been abused
abused
abused

sunday morning hanging out with my brother watching the lady in black tell the news how you're supposed to behave, and tell the truth now you don't know what to say we've been abused
abused
abused
abused
abused

other people see some evil intention but the closer you get, the more you get confused now, why does everyone know been abused now, didn't want it to show
