I could keep you here with me inside this crowded tomb.
Though such a pretty girl don't deserve to become worm food.
I could hold you here forever with these cold and scaly
Arms I swear I'd never hurt you or leave any visible scars.

No time like tonite for me to die.
Return to the light. you'll always be in mind.
In the midst of my evil sights.

I want to learn your body and feel your heart within.

Use that hot blood of yours to warm up my icy skin.

Cold hands don't always mean a broke and unforgiving Heart. I've gotta let you go and babe it tears my soul apart.

Chorus.

No better time than tonite for me to die and leave
You behind. you're my one thing worth giving so tonite,

Return to the living.
