Out here in the pumpkinpatch beneath the dirt I hide
To kill unknowing farmers and to strip them of their hides
Such an unlikely place for atrocities of this kind
My secret slaughterhouse is here in the garden's where
I thrive
(bridge)
The orange goblins speak to me in the night
As the moon casts shadows the pumpkins come to life
(chorus)
Pick-axe in my hand, plunged into your back Slicin off your arms and legs, murder in the punpkinpath tonight...

Dug many a shallow grave
The soil isn't very ripe
I like it when they scream so loud and beg for their lives
Such an unlikely place to rip out someone's spine
My secret slaughterhouse is here in the garden's where
I thrive
(bridge)
(chorus)

(repeat chorus)
Murder in the pumpkinpatch tonight! (x3)
