"They Come"

Descend upon the black night with deadly intentions
No light's left in the eyes of these expired henchmen
Beckoned back unto the earth from their festering place
This horror lives, it breathes, and stares at you straight in the face.
(bridge)
I hear a rumblin' comin' from the underground
Tonight the dead shall rise for carnage...
They come...From the grave
They come...From the grave

Scattered remnants of mankind lies at their feet
A threat to all humanity we can't control these beasts
This genocidal pack of mad cadav'rous forces
The planet's overcome by these living corpses...
(bridge)
(chorus)
They come from the grave with murder on their minds
They come from the grave within the broad daylight
They come from the grave with murder on their minds
They come from the grave though dead, they walk alive...
Walk alive (X4)
