OooOh Yeah yeah yeah, OooOh, Woooooooh

Wish I had a dollar for every time you said I never hurt you (Oooh)
You said you wanted love and romance, that was so far from the truth (So far from the truth, oooh) Told me that my ex was a fool but you're going through the same things (Yeah)
Should've never let you in that far
But now I know the type of girl you are

So don't change nothing about you
If they say that seeing is believing
Then don't blame me for leaving
So don't change nothing about you
You don't even have to lie
I seen the light
My word of advice is don't change.

Maybe it was me thinking she'd understand I'm a good guy (Oooh)
Tryna make her see I can be what she needs in her life
(Needs in her life)
What's crazy is it never even cross your mind what you could lose
How bout I make it easy for you to choose (Yeah)
Don't blame it on nobody else but you

So don't change nothing about you
If they say that seeing is believing
Then don't blame me for leaving (Don't blame me girl)
So don't change nothing about you
You don't even have to lie
I seen the light
My word of advice is don't change.

How could you do this I was there for you when no one understood
Stay by your side took care of you when no one said they would
Gave all my time my love and asked for nothing in return

So tell me how do I get burnâ€¦over youâ€¦over youâ€¦

OooOoh Yeah yeah yeah (Don't change)

OooOohâ€¦Yeah yeah yeah

Don't change

So don't change nothing about you

If they say that seeing is believing

Then don't blame me for leaving

So don't change nothing about you

You don't even have to lie

I seen the light

My word of adviceâ€¦

Don't change nothing about you (Don't ever do it noâ€¦)

You don't even have to lie

I seen the light

My word of adviceâ€¦is don't change.

Enjoy

-Johnny
