Maybe I love you was too much
'Cos now it feels like we're out of touch
And maybe this was all a big mistake
'Cos I don't know how to take you
For your heart it's the chance I'd rather take Please forgive me if I cannot hide what I feel
I'm just trying to make you believe that I'm real
Don't turn away when I'm right here waiting
Don't be afraid cos we both are changing
If it's real it will be what it's suppose to be
All I ask from you is please don't turn away from me
Don't turn away
Maybe I should just give you your space
But without you i feel so out of place
The more I reach out to you
It's like the further you go away
I just want you to hear what I'm trying to say
Don't turn away when I'm right here waiting
Don't be afraid cos we both are changing
If it's real it will be what it's suppose to be
All I ask from you is please don't turn away from me
Oh oh oh don't turn away
Don't turn away cos I'm right here waiting
Don't be afraid cos we both are changing
If it's real it will be what it's suppose to be
All I ask from you is please don't turn away from me
Please don't turn away from me
