Woke up this morning
needed to talk pick up the phone and started to call that's when it hit me that u were gone so many questions things that's been said so much confusion go ?round in my head and so many reasons that just don't make sense

I try to carry on but something's missing inside I just wanna know if u were above me show me some kind a sign do u still hear me
when I call your name?
will u be with me when I lose my way when it gets hard let me know what to do u always told me that u never go I need u to show me that I'm not alone do u still hear me when I sing for u show me u do

how do I start to make sense what's left still carry a memory of u in my head and I'm just not ready to let u go yet Oo no but I know u'r proud of the way that I am that u would want me to go on ahead I give it all off see u again

I try
to carry on but something's missing inside I just need to know if u were above me
when I call your name?

do u still hear me when I sing for u
