"Therefore, However, And So Forth"

Therefore, I'm trying to get my fill
I'm so lucky that I'm not blank
Responsibility Awaits
But when I think too much about it
I can't change fate

However, we wish to fantasize
We wait to find the compromise

I've never been to the future but I see it everyday

It comes down like acid rain on a 21st century day

And so forth we now control the tide
In blinking time the pressures change the sky
Passive masses watch and don't ask why but I walk by and wait to see inside
