Well I guess it was wrong
For me to come here
Cuz so far you've not said a word
Or even passed a glance my way

Chorus:
Well okay and that's fine
I'll take alogies this time
And if you decide
To maybe change your mind
Later tonight, later tonight

Well I thought you would be
Somewhat excited to see me
But instead I'm sitting here alone
Thinking I didn't do anything wrong

(Chorus)

So this is goodbye

And then the late late show is ending
And I'm tired of pretending
That you're coming downstairs to sleep with me (x2)

And I could get to sleep much faster
Wishing if I only had her here right now (x2)

And if I only had her here right now (x2)
