Let's take a minute to stop and reflect on how we got to where we are now, from where we were then.
Insecurity and selfconsciousness to indeer our personalities with endless motivation.

And this high isn't chemical!

Step by step and day by day, we'll live out our oath.
To take advantage of all our chances and live our...
Live our lives to the full.

All the insults that have been thrown our way are just faded memories of a world we used to inhabitate.
Pulling their punches and standing our ground, we're living our dreams and embracing our vow.

And this high isn't chemical!
Step by step and day by day, we'll live out our oath.
To take advantage of all our chances and live our...
Live our lives to the full.

We're not the ones that fake it!
So save your judgement for the righteous and live out your lives to the full.
