I look into her eyes and get nothing but a stare
Her body's stiff and cold, it's like she's never even here
Silky skin turning blue, her rotting flesh will stink
A lifeless torso on the couch that never smiles at me

Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back, come back, come back...

Limppness in her arms as I give the embrace Knowing now that she's gone puts a sad look on my face
But I did what I had to do, nobody will ever know
A lifeless torso on the couch that starts to decompose

Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back, come back

Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back to me Nadine - Woah oh oh
Come back, come back, come back to me Nadine
