Civilization ending
A mystic silent sound
No more spirit rising
Wasteland all around
Bursting open the wall
No longer down hearted
I am hearing the call
My mind is feeling my heart
Evil eyes around me
No movement on my own
Cannot shake the present
No visions here to roan
Bursting open the wall
No longer down hearted
I am hearing the call
My mind is feeling my heart... heart.... heart...
Deserted faces crowding me
Staring cold ahead
Not consious of their destiny
My heart won't be lead
I'll escape to the heights now
I'll escape to the heights
Now.... now.... now.... now....
Deserted faces crowding me
Staring cold ahead
Not consious of their destiny
My heart won't be lead
I'll escape to the heights now
I'll escape to the heights now.... now.... now.... now....
Yonder in the distance
A glowing ray of light
Escape from isolation
The shadows in the night
I'll escape to the heights
Acheiving new frontiers
I've a reason to fight
Rejecting old values
Leave the darkness behind
I'm feeling my freedom now.... now.... now.... now....
