Citizens of the world, rejoice!!

As of today, a new chapter of mankind's history has begun.

We have solved nature's last mystery

It's ultimate secret and have finally found the key to eternal life.

Not only are you now all equal

You are also a priveleged new generation

Chosen to live forever!!!!

Welcome to immortality!!!!

Behold our world

At last we're all equal

Life and death have now lost their meaning

Time's alive inside of our bodies

'Coz nature's secrets are unveiled so we cry out

Now we've found just what we're all about

So long ago we searched for an answer

Life and death are now just a status

Look around you'll see a celestial glow

There's a high reward to our days of strife

Now we've found eternal golden life

Deep in your soul you'll feel

Doubts setting in

A cry that fills your veins with fear is burning inside

A craving so strong, oh so strong for the real breath of life

I feel my heart beat

The icy hand of wind

Brushing my skin in the night

I'm imprisoned inside

A future predestined so far

Takes control of my life

Voyager of the future race

You drew the shorter straw

Chaos reigns all emotions all around

Panic sweeps the mind

And silence rebounds

Bouncing back from afar

The nights are cold and long when you're lonely

Wake up your mind right now or your wasted

Times goes by so fast at a steady pace
So desillusioned for the price we pay is high
Don't look down or you might fall
So be deaf to nature's call
Don't think twice and let your mind fly by
