1. Since ancient history
it's been a mystery
why we can't escape
from the force
of our destination
2 We turn another key
but still we fail to see every move we make is a part
of our destination
Br. While you're convinced that you're the one who's in control fate has predefined if you will reach your goal you're heading on a course that you can't change at all Refrain
Go ahead and set your spirit free find your harmony and let it be all emotions are unleashed inside your heart
Listen to your secret dreams inside
Let your deepest senses be your guide
Trust your destiny: you're walking hand in hand
for there is no road
the road appears

which ever way you go

3. Too many questions cry too many answers lie You can't understand that you're called to your destination
4. The power you set free can't break the mystery You are not aware
what you choose
is your destination You always wonder what you'll be

and who you are Secrets unexplained
life seems so bizarre. ah!
and every turn you
make your fate
calls from afar
Refrain
Br. All the times when you have doubts inside that try stop you climbing higher disregard the whispers
in your mind
they're just lying
