counting out numbered time, in my chamber shall I shout throw a line my life saver many doors a cracked floor and foundation mirrored walls, imaged calls, slow stagnation
a skyline outmeasured
a lifeline so treasured in confusion I am anchored caged illusion still unanswered Not in good shape someone show me how to escape mirror gallery

only see reflections of myself give me a direction i need help many doors a cracked floor and foundation mirrored walls, image calls, slow stagnation
a skyline outmeasured
