ballet on ice
you will fall before you know, hey!
watch where you go
you beat the retreat
everytime you have to choose, hey!
you'll always lose
the back is where you've found your seat happy that you've got off cheap cameras
replace your eyes
offering life in disguise Integrity
There's two of a kind
Depends on how it's defined
Cameras
replace your eyes
offering too many lies
but time's a healer
don't react

just call it fate
the governing few
saluted like uniforms, hey!
where were you born
talk when you're asked
sing when you see dotted lines, hey!
don't take your time
don't you ever contemplate before you find out it's too late as long as your illusionsto put you to confusion, distant distant nothing will force you ? to ever react, react beat back
you sport a line of sight which comes close to being blind
