PROLOGUE:

Life is a mystery, which we will probably never be able to solve.

Yet latent, deep inside, we feel through our intuition something that wakes our senses and our imagination and allows us to presume the answer hiding behind this enigma.

Since countless years of desperate days
We struggle restless for the light
For a life in everlasting joy We're craving for its warming rays
To ease our pensive minds and souls Disperse all wordily toil that tears us down Unaware of the miracles inside we carry on

I see a pixie dancing daintily Her smile and lovely aura twinkles in the sun Delights my heart and let me dream
The nectar of her voice tasting sweet Her gentle sound of chanting fills the air Waking up my senses penetrate my mind Tearing down all barriers let my spirit fly

Carried by unknown forces I am rising high beyond the sky
Feel no gravity no anxiety I let it be enjoy the ride Sudden in higher spheres a heavenly voice appears telling me things I always felt inside
It is real, so real, all I see and feel is not the refuge of my fantasy Marvelous things are passing by incredible sights
I wonder why I've never been here have never seen this before My spirit is free my sense is clear without compare all what I feel everything is deliverance in my heart

No subconscious Illusion Or tricks of mental confusion - real!!!
Supernatural infusion // Overwhelming conclusion - real!!!

Feels like a journey beyond space and time Surrounded by an aura sublime

The world around so bizarre tuned in magic light inspiration fills my mind Celestial bells sounding everywhere, song of birds, a harmonious atmosphere Visionary signs circulate everywhere lead me to another sphere Anticipation awake deep inside Vibrating senses sweep in my mind

Carried by unknown forces I am rising high beyond the sky
Feel no gravity no anxiety I let it be enjoy the ride
It is real, so real, all I see and feel
is no deception of my fantasy

Emotional rescue, rays of light, my heart is dancing day and night surrounded by a miracle of delight Images come to live more and more I realize it's a journey to my deepest self inside Forgotten dreams and wishes rise unchaining all passionate cries for everlasting joy, eternal light
It is real, so real, all I see and feel
is no deception of my fantasy
All I see and feel is real, so real, now I see behind the mystery
