"Waves Of Intuition"

Ice and fire in my heart - elusive dreams are torn apart
A restless age fading away - a new millennium
Announcing a turn of time, a presentimental sign
Let shivers run down my spine
In starlit nights
All visions fly
To highest heights
Towards the sky
Time standing still
In silent space
A magic spell
Enchanting the world around
Tuned in celestial sound
Where refuge of mind is found
Tides of emotions rise - drifting inside my mind
Riding mystical waves - leaving all cares behind
Memories from the past - easing the pensive mind
Silent echoes rebound - and lead me to virginal shores
Unknown before
Tides of emotions rise - drifting inside my mind
Riding mystical waves - leaving all cares behind
Memories from the past - easing the pensive mind
Silent echoes rebound - and lead me to virginal shores
Where deep intuition awakes to reveal - secret doors,
unknown before
