I didn't mean to hurt you
You know, it's just my way
Those things that I said yesterday
Were things I shouldn't say

Although you're blue
Just one thing I want you to do
Just forget all those things
That I said about you

'Cause I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do

Yes, I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And you know in your heart
That I'll always worship you

I couldn't bear to see you go
Oh, no, no, no, no

So don't you feel sad
It's not the thing to do
Because I worry
If I know you're feeling blue

Please, put your tears away
So nobody can see
'Cause the last thing I want
Is for you to cry over me

'Cause I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do

Yes, I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And you know in your heart
That I'll always worship you

'Cause I've been lovin' you baby
Lovin' you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do
