Six o'clock alarm
I get the wake up call
Let that sucker jingle-jangle
Ring right off the wall

I'm too low for zero
Too tired to work
Tied one on with a friend last night
And wound up losing my shirt

I'm too low for zero
I'm on a losing streak
I got myself in a bad patch lately
I can't seem to get much sleep

I'm too low for zero
I wind up counting sheep
Nothing seems to make much sense
It's all just Greek to me

You know, I'm too low, too low, too low for zero
You know, I'm too low, too low, too low for zero

Cuttin' out cups of coffee
Switchin' off the late night news
Puttin' the cat out two hours early
It isn't any use

I'm too low for zero
Insomnia attacks
Watching flies with my eyes till sunrise
It's daylight when I hit at the sack

I'm too low for zero
I'm on a losing streak
I got myself in a bad patch lately
I can't seem to get much sleep

I'm too low for zero
I wind up counting sheep
Nothing seems to make much sense
It's all just Greek to me

You know, I'm too low, too low, too low for zero
You know, I'm too low, too low, too low for zero

I'm too low for zero
I'm on a losing streak
I got myself in a bad patch lately
I can't seem to get much sleep

I'm too low for zero
I wind up counting sheep
Nothing seems to make much sense
It's all just Greek to me

You know, I'm too low, too low, too low for zero
You know, I'm too low, too low, too low for zero
For zero, for zero, for zero

I'm too low for zero
I'm too low for zero
I'm too low for zero
