Glowing and blazing
In the wind of times
Ever lit
Searching and fathoming

The fire's arcane
Consuming flames
Sparks to imbue
Our very souls

Pervading
The very breath of life
Flickering from the depths
Of eternity

Never asleep
Never extinct
Not ever ceasing to gleam
Never sear
The sempiternal embers

Never profaned
Never fail
Not ever ceasing to refine
Never forfeit
Never faint
The sempiternal embers

The essence of being
Form of existence
Ever inflamed heart
Heart of the hearts
Burning so bright
Yet clandestine

Gleaming in the lair
Of the powers that be
The four mighty ones
The high kings concealed

Pervading
The very breath of life

Flickering from the depths
Of eternity

Never asleep
Never extinct
Not ever ceasing to gleam
Never sear
The sempiternal embers

Never profaned
Never fail
Not ever ceasing to refine
Never forfeit
Never faint

Giving birth
To the glimmer within Incessantly fostering
The flames

Glowing and blazing
In the wind of times
Ever lit
Searching and fathoming
Sparks to imbue
Our very souls

Pervading
The very breath of life
Flickering from the depths
Of eternity

Never asleep
Never extinct
Never sear
The sempiternal embers

Never profaned
Never fail
Not ever ceasing to refine
Never forfeit
Never faint
The sempiternal embers
