Step by step, we walked the elfdom as far as the pass of Helm
Now waves of twilight wash our shields, shine in our swords We've reached the elfic mighty oak, over hills await the legions of the ogres
With new sun the final battle will begin
BRIDGE: Is the bond of our companionship That will lead us to the victory All the blood that (will) spill from our Enemies is the only grim reward Tunes of battle clash, ploughing all the seven seas and Time is coming fast
CHORUS 1: Far to the world where the dawn is falling Far, through the lands, against the power of the Dark
To the fields where you hear the calling Down, to the hills where the wizard of Arthanelron had ruled Melody: Jarpen Far beyond, over the horizon a sickle of Moon floats in the night
An handful of sparks Branches to roots, blood to the flesh
A spell of ancient ages past, draw the swords and raise our hearts to glorify
With new sun the final battle will begin
BRIDGE: Is the bond of our companionship
That will lead us to the victory For the life of one that has fade away Another one will fight for all
Tunes of battle clash, ploughing all the seven seas
And Time is coming fast
CHORUS 2: Far to the world where the dawn is falling
Far, through the lands, against the power of the Dark
To the fields where the blood is flowing Down, to the hills where the wizard of Arthanelron had
ruled
Hymn: Aydan Strong and proud we stand again In circle round the tree of Usdu'm
The shadow in the wood are lengthening Over our fears and beliefs

A frosty blanket's wrapping us In death or glory at dusk it will end

The banner's high on our lances The final clash has begun

Solos: both, Aydan, Dag'or'dil

Tunes of battle clash, ploughing all the seven seas

And Time has come too fast

CHORUS 1 & 2: Far to the world where the dawn is falling

Far, through the lands, against the power of the Dark

To the fields where you hear the calling

Far to the world where the dawn is falling

Far, through the lands, against the power of the Dark

To the fields where the blood is flowing

ruled
