You're a friend of mine through and through Where have you been?
Sometimes you hide above the blue and silver linen.
You take my hopes and turn them into achievable goals
All things look great when they're bathed in those rays of gold.

So don't ever have doubt that I will be that I'll ever be without you or moving on my own.
They all know that the Sun and I can be an unstoppable force an emotional course that takes life on.
Like a promise made, a date that's kept to a plane ride high.
If you're up above on that day you become the reason why.
Short skirts ice-cream and smiles and music that fills
the air
Everyone's on the vibe like they're all just millionaires.

As I get older I'll keep you on my shoulders.
