Blonde redheads:

He walked away today...
I stood staring, no words there to say the air around me tightened it's grip and I fell down, down, down..

He stole my heart, And I let him win
No kiss goodbye, no amen
he walked away with me just wondering why.... made me cry.. thinking about what i couldv'e said
I'm just a blonde redhead..

So I went inside
and told myself I didn't care Crying silently
praying hope was there but I'm just dumb about things like love cursing above..

rc.

I want my heart back
I want him to feel pain want him to cry
like I do these days
but no hope can be found cursing at the sky
so I'll just let him go hopeing oneday I'll find...

Love again.. hope and trust maybe, out there, there's someone I can love. but till then, till I'm able to get off this bed I'm just a, just a, just a.. blonde redhead.....
