life isn't easy, love never lasts you just carry on and keep moving fast I pulled off the highway and rolled into town I'm just fancy free baby and I travel 'round sometimes I'm up, sometimes down where can I run to how have I sinned

when you cry like a rainstorm
and you howl like the wind my thoughts are filled with memories and they won't let me be but if all the stars are shining bright well they would not let me see it's cold and the rain keeps blowing it's tearing through the town but I'm still fancy free darlin' and I travel round

where can I run to
how have I sinned

sometimes I'm up most times down where can I run to tell me how have I sinned when you cry like a rainstrom
and you howl like the wind

who can I turn to tell me where to begin
when you cry like a rainstorm
when you cry like a rainstorm
