If there's anything that you want
If there's anything that you need
There's no need to be evasive
Money talks, and it's persuasive

Possession
Possession
Possession

Now you're sending me your best wishes
Tied with love and vicious kisses
You lack lust, you're so lackluster
Is that all the strength you can muster?

Possession
Possession
Possession

Even when we are out of touch
Now I know that I've seen too much, seen too much
So I see us lying back to back
My case is closed, my case is packed

I'll get out before the violence
Or the tears, or the silence
