Oh Sweet sweet Janelle
I just wanted you to know
That for the last time I swear
I will pick up that phone and bother you

So please sweet Janelle
Out of curiosity
Do you think you might tell
Where the fuck you have been recently

Chorus
And I know things are different
And maybe things are wrong
And I know that's no reason or excuse for what I've done

So sweet sweet Janelle
I thought maybe you should know
That on the third night this week
I made love to a girl I barely knew

Chorus
And you'll find consolation
In a friend I barely knew
Some guy you first met
When you rented out a room

So sweet, sweet Janelle
I just wanted you to know
That for the last time I swear
I will pick up that phone and bother you
