Tears on your blackmail
Written to ransom
A point of that fingernail
Says, he's so handsome

Clowntime is over, time to take cover
While others just talk and talk
Somebody's watchin' where the others don't walk
Clowntime is over

A voice in the shadows
Says that his men know
He don't step back as expected
He's otherwise and unprotected

Clowntime is over, time to take cover
While others just talk and talk
Somebody's watchin' where the others don't walk
Clowntime is over

Almost too good to be true
Who do you, what do you, why do you do?
While everybody's hidin' under covers
Who's makin' lover's lane safe again for lovers?

Clowntime is over, time to take cover
While others just talk and talk
Somebody's watchin' where the others don't walk
Clowntime is over

Clowntime is over
Clowntime is over
