Black night, Black river

I've got to have her
I've got to get her

Black river running red

Be my bloody bride
I'm going to love you until you're dead

And stay right by my side tonight
Be my bloody bride

And stay right by my side tonight

We made love

The night was hot and dark
I plunged a blade deep into her heart

Blood pumps to my hands and my feet
Blood stains on my clothes and my sheets

Be my bloody bride

And stay right by my side tonight

And stay right by my side tonight
Be my bloody bride

There's a weight, hanging over my head

It dangles there, dangles by a thread
I killed my girl

I've to hide

But at least I finally found my blood bride

Be my bloody bride

And stay right by my side tonight

Be my bloody bride
And stay right by my side tonight
