

Elvis Hitler "Open Road"

Visit "Open Road" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm a singer
I sing songs

Piled into our big black van

And the we drove it all across this land

Playing music that was big and loud
The open road is what it's all about
Walking the streets of Athens, Georgia

I passed a phone and thought I'd call you
I miss you baby, really miss you a lot

Your hugs and kisses get me hot, hot, hot

Cheap thrills but not cheap girls

We're just swine before the pearls

I'm getting homesick and I just found out
The open road is what it's all about

we piled into our big black van
We played our music it was big and loud
That we had driven all across this land

The open road is what it's all about
