"An Expression Of The Inexpressable"

Anything that loose would cancel itself anything that loose would fall off my bed I know that but I couldn't change it.

I made up my mind and changed my mind made up my mind and changed it absence is good empty is reassuring absence presence submit to nothing

I've made up my mind and changed my mind I've made up my mind and changed it absence is good
positive negative submit to nothing in an expression of the inexpressible I'm deceitful
I'm dreadful
I'm lazy
I'm vain and vile our rendezvous was run down
