Anything that loose would cancel itself anything that loose would fall off my bed I know that I can't, but I couldn't change it.
I made up my mind and changed my mind made up my mind and change it absence is good empty is reassuring absence presence submit to nothing I've made up my mind and changed my mind I've made up my mind and changed it absence is good empty is reassuring positive negative submit to nothing in an expression of the inexpressible I'm deceitful I'm dreadful I'm lazy I'm vain and vile our rendevous was run down
