Elvis:

I'll have a blue christmas without you
I'll be so blue just thinking about you
Decorations of red on a green christmas tree
Won't be the same dear if you're not here with me

Martina McBride:

And when those blue snowflakes start falling
That's when those blue memories start calling
You'll be doing alright with your christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue christmas

Elvis:

I'll have a blue christmas without you
I'll be so blue just thinking about you

Martina McBride:

You'll be doing alright with your christmas of white

Elvis and Martina McBride:

But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue christmas
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue christmas
