How many stars are in the sky, I'll never know What fire lights a firefly, I'll never know What happens to this heart of mine each time you hold
my hand
Sometimes the things we love the most, we never understand

I never thought these eyes would see an angel's glow
What miracle brought you to me, I'll never know What happens to this heart of mine each time you hold
my hand
Sometimes the things we love the most, we never
understand

I never thought these eyes would see an angel's glow
What miracle brought you to me, I'll never know What miracle brought you to me, I'll never know
