These long lonely evenings
Here I am, on the phone
Wondering when she will call
She said, she would write me
Cause, she knows im alone.
But I here nothing, at all.

Im waiting, for a word of love from Silvia.
You think she never heard of love, my Silvia.
But when I'm with her, lord i forgive her,
cause' she's more than the whole world, to me.

There's nothing like a word, from Silvia.
The only one, I'm thinking of, is Silvia.
Feeling so sad now.
I'll be so glad now,
If i just had my Silvia, with me.

That old weeping willow, seems to whisper her name
"Why did she go away?"
The tears on my pillow, there not hard to explain.
There's nothing else i could say

I'm waiting for a word of love, from Silvia
You think she never heard a love, my Silvia
But, when I'm with her, lord i forgive her
Cause' she's more then the whole world, to me.
Theres nothing in the world, than my Silvia
The only one I'm thinking of is Silvia

Feeling so sad now, I'll be so glad now,
If I just had my Silvia, with me.
