One, two, three, four

Beneath this snowy mantle cold and clean The unborn grass lies waiting for its coat to turn to green
The snowbird sings a song he always sings And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom again in spring

When I was young my heart was young then too Anything that it would tell me, that's the thing that I would do
But now I feel such emptiness within For the thing that I want most in life is the thing I can't win

Spread your tiny wings and fly away
And take the snow back with you where it came from on that day
The one I love forever is untrue
And if I could you know that I would fly away with you

The breeze along the river seems to say That she'll only break my heart again should I decide to stay
So little snowbird take me with you when you go To that land of gentle breezes where the peaceful waters flow

Spread your tiny wings and fly away
And take the snow back with you where it came from on
that day
The one I love forever is untrue
And if I could you know that I would fly away with you Yeah, if I could you know that I would fly away with you
